PAUSE FOR REFLECTION

William Sloan Coffin

I love the recklessness of faith. First you leap, and then you grow wings.

*CALL TO WORSHIP

Amy Loving

Come, let us delight in the law of the Lord.
Our joy is found in the love of God and neighbor.

Come, let us be nourished by Living Water.

Together, let us worship the One who invites us to commune;

The one who enables us to thrive.

OPENING HYMN

Come, Thou Fount of Every Blessing

GREEK TESTAMENT READING

John 12:1-8

Six days before the Passover Jesus came to Bethany, the home of Lazarus, whom he had raised from the dead. There they gave a dinner for him. Martha served, and Lazarus was one of those at the table with him. Mary took a pound of costly perfume made of pure nard, anointed Jesus' feet, and wiped them with her hair. The house was filled with the fragrance of the perfume. But Judas Iscariot, one of his disciples (the one who was about to betray him), said, "Why was this perfume not sold for three hundred denarii and the money given to the poor?" (He said this not because he cared about the poor, but because he was a thief; he kept the common purse and used to steal what was put into it.) Jesus said, "Leave her alone. She bought it so that she might keep it for the day of my burial. You always have the poor with you, but you do not always have me."

SERVICE OF COMMUNION

Rev. Marci Rau officiating
Invitation to the Table

GREAT PRAYER of THANKSGIVING

Blessed are you, God of time and space.
Heaven is here and earth, too,
and the space between them, thin.
Here are those bound by time
and those blessed by eternity,
the Church above and the Church below,

Abraham and Sarah, Miriam and Moses are here, Amos and Jeremiah, Simeon and Anna, Peter and Paul, Martha and all the Marys, Stephen and Perpetua, Bonhoeffer and Romero, Francis of Assisi and Hildegard of Bingen, Martin Luther King and Mother Theresa, saints from far back and those who left not long ago,
Only sight prevents our seeing them.
here at your table.

Heaven is here, and earth, and you, great
God, who made them!
And so, we join in the unending hymn of praise:

Holy, holy, holy Lord,
God of power and might,
heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.

WORDS OF INSTITUTION

PRESENTATION OF ELEMENTS

CORPORATE PRAYER

from the New Zealand Book of Prayer

Eternal Spirit,
Earth-maker, Pain bearer, Life-giver,
Source of all that is and that shall be,
Father and Mother of us all,
Loving God, in whom is heaven:
May the hallowing of your name echo
through the universe;
The way of your justice be followed by the peoples of the world;
Your heavenly will be done by all created
beings;
Your commonwealth of peace and freedom sustain our hope and come on earth.

With the bread we need for today, feed us.
In the hurts we absorb from one another,
forgive us.

In times of temptation and test,
strengthen us.

From trial too great to endure, spare us.
From the grip of all that is evil, free us.
For you reign in the glory of the power
that is love,
now and forever. Amen.

OFFERTORY

My Jesus I Love You
arr. Penny Rodriguez

Through all our living, we our fruits must give.

Good works of service are for offering.
When we are giving, or when receiving,
We belong to God.

We belong to God.

We belong to God.

We belong to God.
