HEBREW TESTAMENT READING

Psalm 139:1-6, 13-18

Even before a word is O Lord, you have searched me and known me.

You know when I sit down and when I rise up;

you discern my thoughts from far away.

You search out my path and my lying down and are acquainted with all my ways.

on my tongue,

O Lord, you know it completely.

You hem me in, behind and before,

and lay your hand upon me.

Such knowledge is too wonderful for me;

it is so high that I cannot attain it.

For it was you who formed my inward parts;

you knit me together in my mother's womb.

I praise you, for I am fearfully and wonderfully made.

Wonderful are your works;

that I know very well.

My frame was not hidden from you,

when I was being made in secret,

intricately woven in the depths of the earth.

Your eyes beheld my unformed substance.

In your book were written

all the days that were formed for me, when none of them as yet existed.

How weighty to me are your thoughts, O God!

How vast is the sum of them!

I try to count them—they are more than the sand;

I come to the end—I am still with you.

THEME READING

“There is something in every one of you that waits and listens for the sound of the genuine in yourself. It is the only true guide you will ever have. And if you cannot hear it, you will, all of your life, spend your days on the ends of strings that somebody else pulls.”

~ Rev. Howard Thurman

OFFERTORY

Through A Stained Glass Window

by Olive Nelson Russell

DOXOLOGY

Through all our living, we our fruits must give.

Good works of service are for offering.

When we are giving, or when receiving,

We belong to God.

We belong to God.

We belong to God.

We belong to God

SERVICE OF COMMUNION

INVITATION TO THE TABLE

GREAT PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

Blessed are you, God of time and space.

Heaven is here and earth, too,

and the space between them, thin.

Here are those bound by time and those blessed by eternity,

the Church above and the Church below,

Abraham and Sarah, Miriam and Moses are here,

Amos and Jeremiah, Simeon and Anna,

Peter and Paul, Martha and all the Marys,

Stephen and Perpetua, Bonhoeffer and Romero,

Francis of Assisi and Hildegard of Bingen,

Martin Luther King and Mother Theresa, saints from far back and those who left not long ago,

Only sight prevents our seeing them.

Heaven is here, and earth, and you, great God, who made them!

And so, we join in the unending hymn of praise:

Holy, holy, holy Lord,

God of power and might,

heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest.
