PAUSE FOR REFLECTION

Let's toil under the sun to build poles of love.
And let our roots be planted like strong trees that strong winds can't move.

~ Oscar Auliq Ice

CALL TO WORSHIP

We can trust God.

God is a mountain: rock solid.

God loves all people:

the poor, the other-abled, the queer, the odd, the outcast, the stranger.

We can depend on God.

God feeds the hungry, heals the sick, and restores relationships.

Praise our Loving God.

May the wind of God's Spirit blow and refresh us on this Pentecost celebration day.

ORDINATION AND INSTALLATION OF ELDERS AND DEACONS

GREEK TESTAMENT READING

James 2:14 – 18

What good is it, my brothers, if someone says he has faith but does not have works? Can that faith save him? If a brother or sister is poorly clothed and lacking in daily food, and one of you says to them, "Go in peace, be warmed and filled," without giving them the things needed for the body, what good is that? So also faith by itself, if it does not have works, is dead. But someone will say, "You have faith and I have works." Show me your faith apart from your works, and I will show you my faith by my works.

THEME READING

"The way you get meaning into your life is to devote yourself to loving others, devote yourself to your community around you, and devote yourself to creating something that gives you purpose and meaning."

~ Mitch Albom

RESPONSIVE HYMN

When the Poor Ones (Cuando el pobre)

CORPORATE PRAYER

by Fred F. Keip Indwelling God,
infused throughout all existence,
we honor you with many names.
Your realm is within the human heart.
We accept life for all that it can be,
on earth as throughout all creation.
May we continue to draw sustenance
from this earth,
and may we receive forgiveness equal to our own.
May we ever move from separation toward union,
to live in grace, with love in our hearts,
forever and ever.
Amen.

OFFERTORY

As the Deer with Fairest Lord Jesus, Martin Nystrom, Arr., Mark Hayes

DOXOLOGY

Through all our living, we our fruits must give.
Good works of service are for offering.
When we are giving, or when receiving,
We belong to God.
We belong to God.
We belong to God.
We belong to God
