PAUSE FOR REFLECTION

"Be present with your pain, and be willing to feel it, really feel it. Yes, it can be very uncomfortable, but if you quickly try to numb yourself from it, then you are choosing to be in the moment half-asleep, and what kind of way is that to go through life?"
~ Ora Nadrich

CALL TO WORSHIP

We worship the God who inhabits our world and indwells our lives.

We need not look up to find God, we need only to look around:
within ourselves,
beyond ourselves,
into the eyes of another.

We need not listen for a distant thunder to find God, we need only listen to the music of life,

the words of children,
the questions of the curious,
the rhythm of a heartbeat.

We worship the God who inhabits our world and who indwells our lives.

HEBREW TESTAMENT READING

Job 38:1-7

Then the Lord answered Job out of the whirlwind: "Who is this that darkens counsel by words without knowledge? Gird up your loins like a man; I will question you, and you shall declare to me. "Where were you when I laid the foundation of the earth? Tell me, if you have understanding. Who determined its measurements—surely you know! Or who stretched the line upon it? On what were its bases sunk, or who laid its cornerstone when the morning stars sang together and all the heavenly beings shouted for joy?"

THEME READING

"Mindfulness feels like it stops time and sits patiently with you, as if holding your hand and saying, "It's okay. You can be with what you're feeling, and take as much time as you need to work through it with compassion for yourself."

~ Ora Nadrich,
Mindfulness and Mysticism

RESPONSIVE HYMN

#819 Be Still My Soul

CORPORATE PRAYER

by Fred F. Keip

Indwelling God,

infused throughout all existence,

we honor you with many names.

Your realm is within the human heart.

We accept life for all that it can be,

on earth as throughout all creation.

May we continue to draw sustenance from this earth,

and may we receive forgiveness equal to our own.

May we ever move from separation toward union,

to live in grace, with love in our hearts,
forever and ever.

Amen.

OFFERTORY

Good works of service are for offering.

When we are giving, or when receiving,

We belong to God.
